Stories Come to Life!

Everyone loves to hear a good story; children's librarian

Kathryn Lopez Luker

is podcasting favorites old & new to listen to anytime, anywhere!

Just go to our webpage (marshallpl.org) & click the link to Stories Come to Life.

In mere moments you'll hear Kathryn reading Mark Twain's classic Adventures of Tom Sawyer or some other wonderful book recorded for your listening pleasure.

It's free, it's easy, & it's available to everyone.

Holidays Around the World Crafts for Kids

The Youth Services Department will have holiday crafts available for children and teens to pick up December 7-11, 14-18, & 21-22.

Be sure to swing by for some holiday fun!

DACHSHUND THROUGH THE SNOW
by David Rosenfelt
ADULT FICTION

At the local pet store stands a Christmas tree; instead of ornaments, it holds wishes from those in need. A young boy named Danny wishes for a coat for his mother, a sweater for his dachshund, and for the safe return of his missing father... a man just arrested for murder. Lori Carpenter wants to see Danny's wish come true. She and her lawyer husband, Andy, must prove Danny's father innocent in a 14-year-old cold case to which he's been connected through DNA... Dachshund... can be enjoyed alone or as part of a series (#20). Highly recommended to those who enjoy cozy mysteries along with other books by David Rosenfelt.

MPL Welcomes...
Norrin Shearer

Norrin Shearer was born in Meridian, ID and moved to Pocatello 4 years ago to attend Idaho State University. He has since graduated with a degree in creative writing and a minor in PR & Advertising. He has 3 published poems and loves playing Dungeons & Dragons. He even runs a D&D podcast called Dungeon Stories! Norrin loves to read science-fiction and fantasy novels. His favorite part about working at the library is helping people discover new stories to fall in love with.

A lot has changed this year, but not the spirit of giving!

Although Food for Fines has been postponed, the library still wants to help the Idaho Foodbank this season.

Throughout December, we're taking cash or check donations.

If you donate, we'll display a snowflake with your name on the "cloud" wall near the Circulation Desk!

Please make checks payable to The Idaho Foodbank.

Thanks!
