

One World, Many Stories, 2011

Summer Activities for Youth

Here are some of the activities you can do this summer:

- ◊ Play with the new Puppet Theater!

- ◊ Come listen to picture books every Monday afternoon from 2:00 to 3:00.
- ◊ Join the library writing group, Write On! (4th-6th gr.) (Meets every Monday from 4:00 to 5:00).
- ◊ Watch book-related movies on Tuesdays at 2:00 to get out of the summer heat.
- ◊ Meet the Book Wagon at a park on Wednesdays. Hear stories and get a free book.

- ◊ Take part in our Summer Art Institute on Thursdays at 3:30 each week.
- ◊ Come to our Multicultural Events at 2:00 every Friday.
- ◊ Read, Read, Read!

Register and pick up prizes in the library foyer, at the Youth Help Desk, in the park, or at the Farmers' Market.

Dates to Remember:

First day of registration — Monday, June 6

First Prize can be picked starting Monday June 13

Last Prize can be picked up starting Monday, June 20

Last day for prize pick-up — Friday, August 19

Any questions? Call the library at 232-1263, ext. 28